On 30th August, 2024, 24 students from MBA final year (batch 2023-25) and Faculty from department of management, MAIT visited the Triveni Devi Old Age Home under the initiative taken by Khushi Club of the department. The visit aimed to bring joy and engagement to the elderly residents, celebrate Janmashtami, and foster intergenerational learning.

Activities and Celebrations:

1. Gift Distribution:

- Prior to the visit, faculty and students collected and brought various items for the residents. These included essentials and small gifts to brighten their day.

2. Janmashtami Celebration:

- Janmashtami festival was celebrated with elderly old age home residents commemorating the birth of Lord Krishna. The day's activities included:
 - Quiz on Janmashtami: Participants engaged in a quiz just for their fun and knowledge about the festival and Lord Krishna's life.
 - Dandiya Dance: Students and residents joined in traditional dandiya dances, enhancing the festive atmosphere.
 - Hanuman Chalisa Chanting: The group chanted the Hanuman Chalisa, adding a spiritual touch to the celebration.
 - Matki Breaking: In a symbolic re-enactment of Lord Krishna's antics, a matki (pot) was broken, creating a lively and joyous scene.

Interaction with Residents:

1. Notable Personality:

- One particularly fascinating elderly resident shared his remarkable life story. He holds a Ph.D. and studied at IIT Kharagpur, with over 30 years of experience in the IT industry. His insights and experiences provided valuable learning opportunities for both students and teachers.

2. Engagement with Other Residents:

- Throughout the visit, we interacted with various residents, engaging in conversations that offered insights into their diverse life experiences and perspectives. The warmth and joy shared were evident as they expressed their happiness at having company and celebrating with us.

Conclusion: The visit to Triveni Devi Old Age Home was a fulfilling and educational experience. The faculty and students left with a deeper appreciation for the wisdom and experiences of the elderly residents. The activities were organized not only to celebrate Janmashtami but also to foster a sense of community and mutual respect. The residents expressed their gratitude and enjoyment, making the event a memorable and impactful experience for all involved.

Acknowledgements: We extend our heartfelt thanks to the staff of Triveni Devi Old Age Home for their hospitality and support, and to everyone who contributed to making this visit a success.

Recommendations: Future visits could benefit from incorporating more interactive and educational activities, as well as opportunities for deeper engagement with residents to further enrich the experience for both the visitors and the elderly community.
